CURRENT U.S. PROBATION OFFICERS SEEKING TRANSFER ARE ENCOURAGED TO APPLY

About the Office

The District's jurisdiction encompasses the 25 western counties of Pennsylvania, with branch offices located in Erie, Johnstown and Pittsburgh. The U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for the Western District of Pennsylvania provides services to United States District Judges, United States Senior District Judges, United States Magistrate Judges and approximately 80 employees. The Probation Office headquarters is located in the Joseph F. Weis, Jr. U.S. Courthouse, Suite 3330, 700 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

Mission Statement

We believe everyone can experience meaningful change and personal growth. In our service to the Court and to the public, we use best practices to promote positive outcomes and create safer communities.

About the Position

Probation Officers provide casework services to federal defendants and persons convicted of a federal offense who have been placed on pretrial release supervision, pretrial diversion supervision, probation, parole, and supervised release. This involves the delivery of evidence-based correctional interventions to foster the person's lawful self-management and compliance with conditions of supervision.

Representative Duties

- Conduct investigations and prepare reports for the Court to assist with its detention and sentencing decisions.
- Provide accurate, thorough, and objective information along with best judgement to the Court for the issuance of individualized, fair and equitable court orders.

- Monitor a person's compliance with the conditions of supervision and report to the Court allegations of non-compliance.
- Interact with defendants and people under supervision with the values of affirmation, non-judgmental attitude, openness, empathy and respect.
- Assess and identify general risk, risk to do harm, needs, strengths, and level of motivation, for defendants and people under supervision.
- Address substance abuse, mental health, domestic violence, and similar problems and implement the necessary course of action, through monitoring, restrictions and interventions.
- Develop collaborative strategies/interventions to foster lawful self-management.
- May be asked to perform other duties as assigned by the Assistant Deputy Chief, Deputy Chief, and Chief Probation Officer.
- Travel to other locations within the district may be required at times with little to no advance notice.

Preferred Skills

- Ability to organize, prioritize work schedule, work independently with minimal supervision.
- Ability to work under pressure and with short deadlines while maintaining a positive and professional demeanor.
- Ability to exercise discretion and sound judgment, maintain confidentiality, foster high ethical standards, and demonstrate integrity in meeting the district's vision, mission and goals.
- Ability to exercise impartiality and discretion with people under supervision and their family/support system.
- Ability to interact and communicate effectively (orally and in writing) with the Court, attorneys, treatment providers, co-workers, people of diverse backgrounds and others.
- Skill in use of automated equipment including mobile devices, word processing, spreadsheets, database applications, and various other types of software.

Qualifications

All officer positions require completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a related field of academic study, such as Criminal Justice, Criminology, Sociology, Social Work, Psychology, Counseling, Law, etc.

- A Master's degree in the field of psychology, social work, sociology, or any of the behavioral sciences is preferred.
- Ability to routinely work non-traditional hours
- Must possess the ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing.
- Must be able to follow rules, procedures, and the Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees.

Experience

- To qualify for a starting salary in CL 25, the incumbent must have one year of specialized experience equivalent to CL-23 or Completion of a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college and superior academic achievement or completion of one year of graduate work in a field of study closely related to the position.
- To qualify for a starting salary in CL 27 the incumbent must have two years of specialized experience, including at least one year equivalent to the work at the CL-25; or completion of a master's degree in a field of study closely related to the position or a Juris Doctor (JD) degree.
- To qualify for a starting salary in the CL-28 the incumbent must have two years of specialized experience, including at least one-year equivalent to work at the CL-27.

- Specialized Experience is progressively responsible experience, gained after completion of a bachelor's degree, in such fields as probation, pretrial services, parole, corrections, criminal investigations, or work in substance/addiction treatment. Experience as a police, custodial, or security officer, other than any criminal investigative experience, does not qualify as specialized experience.

Maximum Entry Age

- First-time appointees to positions covered under law enforcement officer retirement provisions must not have reached their 37th birthday at the time of appointment. Applicants 37 or over who have previous law enforcement experience under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System and who have either a subsequent break in service or intervening service in a non-law enforcement officer position may have their previous law enforcement experience subtracted from their age to determine whether they meet the maximum age requirement.

Background Investigation

- As a condition of employment, the selectee must successfully complete a background investigation, which includes a medical examination, credit check and drug screening. In addition, the incumbent will be subject to random drug screening, updated background investigations every five years and, as deemed necessary by management for reasonable cause, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations.

Benefits

Employees of the U.S. Probation Office are eligible to receive benefits which include participation in the Federal Employees Retirement System, Thrift Savings Plan, choice of a health benefit plan, life insurance, optional long term care and long term disability, optional vision, optional dental, annual/sick leave, federal holidays and periodic salary increases. This position is subject to mandatory Electronic Funds Transfer for payment of net pay.
